

npo collaboration dialogue

“What to do when things go wrong – managing risk and reputation”

DATE Wednesday 10th May 2017

VENUE Nedbank Auditorium (previously known as BoE),
Nedbank Clocktower, Clocktower Precinct, V&A Waterfront

TIME 09:30 - 10:00
(to allow for networking and registration time before the event starts at 10:00 sharp!)

PROGRAMME

9:00 – 9:30 Registration

9:30 – 10:00 Tea & networking

10:00 - 10:15 Welcome and introduction

10:15 - 10:25 Unpacking risk and its impact

10:25 - 10:45 Angela Cherrington
King IV: Launch, Progress and Opportunities for our sector

10:45 - 10:50 Q & A

10:50 - 11:10 Nic Ray
The Power of Public Opinion: Pitfalls and Potential

11:10 - 11:15 Q & A

11:15 - 11:35 Neeran Naidoo and Jackie Busch
Towards a fresh approach to crisis management

11:35 - 11:50 Q&A and sharing session

11:50 - 12:00 Closing

12:00 - 12:30 Tea and Networking

PARKING V&A, Portsworld or Ulundi Parking facilities. Nedbank Private Wealth apologises that there will not be parking available at the venue itself (Clocktower/ Silo 1 parking) due to the number of attendees. The public parking areas mentioned are a five minute walk away. Parking is for your own cost.

COST R150 per person (incl. refreshments)

CAPACITY Maximum 130 attendees: Leaders of NPO, Social Enterprise, CSI projects and organisations incl. Board Members, Executives, Funders and Fundraisers.